

Community Description

Crawford Creek - Nature's Plantation

Imagine living in a place that seems as though it were set aside just for you. Unspoiled through thoughtful design. some one hundred acres left untouched for you to enjoy the vibrance of the seasons. A natural preserve surrounds the entire property protecting the integrity of your community and creating a retreat from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Once you pass through our spectacular, award-winning entrance with its stone monuments, bridge and lush landscaping, you'll know you've found something special. This upscale community is peacefully secluded in the heart of Evans, Georgia. Bordered by two naturally occurring tributaries of the Savannah River, acres of preserved green space and miles of nature trails. Crawford Creek is the ideal location to cultivate your way of life.

Throughout Crawford Creek, numerous footpaths and trails will lead you to the green space areas. Extensive paved sidewalks and nature trails will allow you to enjoy the Plantation by foot or by bike.
